Meet Andy

Meet Andy Fincher, our Operations Manager at Heritage Irrigation, a man with a knack for turning water into green gold! With a decade of experience, Andy is more than just a water wizard; he's the guy who can make your parched lawn sigh with relief.

When he's not busy sprinkling his magic touch on irrigation systems, you can find him charming clients with his excellent sales skills. Andy is not just a professional in the field; he's also a pro at home, juggling the role of a father of two sons. We suspect his secret to success is his ability to negotiate with 5 year old's and teenagers at the same time - a skill that surely comes in handy when dealing with finicky sprinkler systems! So, if your lawn's thirst has you crying "Uncle," don't fret; Andy's here to save the day, one water droplet at a time.
